The following communication, presented by Mr. Duryea, was, on his motion, ordered printed in the Journal:

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., February 28, 1903

The Honorable Committee on Mines and Mining Interests, Assembly Chamber, Sacramento, Cal.

GENTLEMEN: At a special meeting of the executive committee of the California Miners' Association, held in this city on the above date to consider various measures pending before the State Legislature of the State of California, it was unanimously voted as the sense of the committee that Senate Bills Nos. 214, 304, and 314, known respectively as the Mine Inspector bill and the Employers' Liability bills, were inimical to the vast mining interests of the State of California, and that every honorable means should be used to prevent their being enacted into law. Very respectfully,

CALIFORNIA MINERS' ASSOCIATION,

By C. M. BELSHAW, President.

[SEAL]

Attest: EDWARD H. BENJAMIN, Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Barber, Senate Bill No. 189 was ordered on Senate special file without further reference to committee, it being an identical bill.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 2, 1903. }

To the Assembly of the State of California.

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have approved Assembly Bill No. 33—An Act to amend the Civil Code by adding two new sections, to be numbered 131 and 132, relating to actions for divorce.

Also: I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 187—Appropriating the sum of $5,000 to pay a judgment held by Robert Y. Hayne against the State of California.

In my judgment, the condition of the State Treasury will not allow, at this time, of the payment of claims, even such as this, against the State. This is not to be regarded as repudiation, but as a postponement of payment to such time as the treasury will permit of payment.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of California

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California, amending Article VII of said Constitution.

The Legislature of the State of California at its regular session, commencing on the fifth day of January, nineteen hundred and three, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that article seven of the Constitution of the State of California be amended to read as follows :

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. There is hereby created a board of pardons which shall consist of the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Attorney-General, and said board shall have the power to grant pardons and reprieves and to commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offense against the law of the State of California, in the manner and under the condition and regulations hereinafter prescribed, but not otherwise.

SEC. 2. Every pardon or commutation of sentence shall be in writing and shall have no force or effect unless the same is granted by a unanimous vote by said board convened as such. A reprieve in a case where capital punishment has been imposed may be granted by any member of said board, but for such time only as may be reasonably necessary to secure a meeting of said board of pardons for the consideration of an application for the pardon or commutation of the sentence of the person so reprieved. Said board may grant an absolute or a conditional pardon, and any conditional pardon shall state the terms and conditions on which it was granted.

Said board of pardons may issue its warrant under the seal of said board to any proper officers to carry into effect such pardon, which warrant shall be obeyed and executed instead of the sentence which was first or originally pronounced.

SEC. 3. Whenever any convict is pardoned by such board, or his punishment is commuted or a reprieve is granted, the officer to whom the warrant for that purpose was issued, after executing the same shall make return thereof under his hand with his doings thereon, to the Governor, as soon as may be and he shall also file with the clerk of the court in which the offender was convicted, an attested copy of the warrant and return, a brief abstract of which the clerk shall subjoin to the record of his conviction.

SEC. 4. The board of pardons shall hold at least four regular meetings in each calendar year, and may hold such other meetings as it shall deem expedient.

Such regular meetings shall be held on the second Mondays of January, April, July and October of each year. All the meetings of said board shall be held in the executive chamber at the State capitol, or in such other places as may be ordered by said board.

SEC. 5. Every application for a pardon, reprieve, or commutation of sentence shall be in writing, addressed to the board of pardons, and shall be signed by the convict or some person in his behalf. It shall concisely state the grounds upon which the pardon, reprieve or commutation is sought, and in addition shall contain the following facts :

1. The name under which the convict was indicted, and every alias by which he has been known.

2. The date and terms of sentence and the names of the offense for which it was imposed.

3. The name of the trial judge and of the district attorney who participated at the trial of the convict, together with that of the county in which he was tried.

4. A succinct statement of the evidence adduced at the trial with the endorsement of the judge or district attorney who tried the case, that the same is substantially correct. If such statement and endorsement are not furnished, the reason thereof shall be stated.

5. The age, birthplace, parentage, occupation, residence, during five years immediately preceding conviction, of the convict.

6. A statement of other arrests, indictments and convictions, if any, of the convict.

The board of pardons may adopt other such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, as may appear to them proper and necessary to carry out the provisions thereof.

SEC. 6. All applications for pardons, reprieves or commutations of sentence shall be filed with the clerk of the board of pardons. The said clerk shall, immediately upon receipt of such application, mail notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereof to the judge of the court wherein the applicant was tried and sentenced, and to the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the applicant, or his successor in office; provided, that a reprieve in capital cases may be granted as provided in section two (2) without such notice; and provided further, that pardons or commutations of sentence of persons committed to a county jail or to a workhouse may be granted by said board without notice.

SEC. 7. The Governor's private secretary, or in his absence the executive secretary, shall be and act as the clerk of the board of pardons and shall perform the duties herein required of such clerk, and such other duties as may be prescribed by said board of pardons without other or further compensation. The board shall be supplied by the Secretary of State with such books, blanks and stationery as shall be necessary. Said board shall preserve a record of every petition received for a pardon, reprieve or commutation of sentence, and of every pardon, reprieve or commutation of sentence granted or refused and the reason assigned therefor. The clerk shall keep such records and perform such duties in relation thereto as shall be prescribed by the board, and all such records and files shall be kept and preserved in the office of the Governor at the State capitol, and shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable times.

SEC. 8. The board of pardons shall supply itself with a seal with which every pardon, reprieve, or commutation or process requiring the presence of any person before it, or the presence of any officer before it, with or without books and papers, in any matter pending before said board, shall be attested and may take whatever reasonable steps in such matter as it may deem necessary to a proper determination thereof. Whenever a person is summoned before the board by its authority, he may be allowed such compensation for travel and attendance upon the board, as the board in its discretion may deem reasonable.

INVITATION TO ASSEMBLYMEN.

The following communication was received by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal:

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, February 27, 1903.

To the Honorable Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly, Sacramento, Cal.:

GENTLEMEN: The National Good Roads Association, the Office of Public Road Inquiries U. S. Government, the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, the State, county, and city officials, and the commercial bodies and railway organizations of the State of Missouri, have the honor to extend to you the official invitation, and we most cordially and earnestly urge you to attend in a body and take part in the deliberations of the National and International Good Roads Convention to be held in the City of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 27, 28, and 29, 1903.

Through the tremendous increase of traffic and the onward march of time and improvement, it has become a public necessity to lower the cost of primary transportation of all products from the farms to railroads, rivers, and harbors. We therefore urge you, the honorable lawmakers of California, to attend this convention and advise with the legislative bodies of other States in suggesting such plans as will insure "public road improvement" in your State and in the several States and Territories of the Union.

The several sessions of the National and International Good Roads Convention will be addressed by some of the most distinguished statesmen, railroad officials, and educators of this and foreign countries. The Good Roads Convention and the dedicatory services of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company—both events occurring the same week—and the exceedingly low rates granted by all railroads to delegates, the attendance of President Roosevelt and his Cabinet, the oration by ex-President Grover Cleveland, the promised attendance of the Governors of all States with their military aides, the largest military parade ever witnessed in the Western States, and the assemblage of ministers plenipotentiary and foreign diplomats, mark the occasion as a most important epoch in the Nation's history.

We sincerely trust that you and the honorable legislators of California will accept this invitation.

Cordially submitted.

W. H. MOORE, President.

R. W. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

Every receiver appointed under the provisions of this section shall make report of the conditions of the affairs under his charge to the Bank Commissioners in the same manner as the solvent banks mentioned in this article are, by law, required to do, and, in addition thereto, shall state the amount of dividends paid, debts collected, and the money realized on property sold, if any, since the previous report. The Bank Commissioners shall have the power, and it is hereby made their duty, to examine the conditions of the affairs of every such corporation in liquidation, in the same manner as in case of solvent banks, businesses, and institutions, and they shall have a general supervision of the affairs of such corporation in liquidation. They shall have the power to limit the number of employes necessary to close up the business of any such corporation in liquidation, and also to limit the salaries of the same, and shall do all in their power to make such liquidation as economical and as expeditious as the interests of the creditors, depositors, and stockholders will admit. When the receiver herein provided for shall have been appointed and qualified, the duties of the Attorney-General shall end.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

Knowing my vote was not needed to pass it, I voted "no" on Senate Bill No. 792 solely because I believe the words, "and allow of his reversing his vote," are of such general import, when standing without some such amendment as that proposed by me to limit the time within which a change may be made, as to render the Act either impossible of being complied with or of doubtful constitutionality, because not properly safeguarding the rights of voters.

E. D. KNIGHT.

Senate Bill No. 793—An Act to amend Sections 1197, 1205, and 1211 of the Political Code, relating to election ballots and manner of voting.

Also, amend the form of ballot between pages six and seven of printed bill by striking out the words "to be elected" wherever those words occur, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "vote for two." Also, by striking out the words "four to be elected" wherever those words occur, and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "vote for four."

AMENDMENT No. 2.

Amend by inserting after line fifteen, section three, page eight of the printed bill three new subdivisions, to be numbered three, four, and five, to read as follows:

3. If a voter stamps in a circle at the head of one of the party columns, and also stamps in the voting square after the name of any candidate in the same or any other column, or writes the name of a person for such office in the blank column, such act does not invalidate his ballot, but his vote must be counted for the candidate opposite whose name the cross is made, or for the person whose name is so written in the blank column, and as to all other offices, the ballot must be counted as a straight party vote for the candidates for the offices under the circle stamped; where, however, there are two or more persons to be elected to the same office, and the voter places a cross opposite the name of a candidate not in the party column beneath the circle so stamped, or writes a name in the blank column, for such office, then the ballot cannot be counted as the candidates for such office designated in the voters party column, except in favor of those opposite whose names he also stamps a cross.

4. No mark upon a ballot which is unauthorized by this Act shall be held to invalidate such ballot, unless it shall appear that such mark was placed thereon by the voter for the purpose of identifying such ballot.

5. Amend by inserting after the word "candidates" in lines one hundred and one hundred and one, page four of the printed bill: "If the name of the same person is printed more than once on a ballot, as a candidate for the same office, the placing of a cross opposite such name in more than one of the different places where it is so printed must not be regarded as putting a distinguishing mark on the ballot, and it must be counted as one vote for such person."

AMENDMENT No. 3.

Strike out all after the word "office" in line one hundred and eighty-five, also all of lines one hundred and eighty-six, one hundred and eighty-seven, and one hundred and eighty-eight, on page six, printed bill, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"If any ticket or list of candidates contains more candidates for any office than there are persons to be elected to such office, it shall be deemed that no nomination has been made for such office."

AMENDMENT No. 4.

Amend page five, printed bill, as follows: Strike out lines one hundred and thirty-three, one hundred and thirty-four, and one hundred and thirty-five, to and including the word "vote," and insert as follows:

"To vote a split ticket, that is, for candidates of different parties, stamp a cross (X) in the voting circle at the head of your party ticket, and a cross (X) after each candidate for whom you desire to vote or stamp a cross (X) for each individual candidate, without stamping the circle.

"Where two or more candidates for the same office are to be elected and you desire to vote for a candidate of some other party, stamp a cross (X) after the names of all candidates for such office you desire to vote for."

AMENDMENT No. 5.

Amend page seven after the word "written," in line nineteen, by inserting the following:

"Where a party ticket does not contain the names of candidates for all offices for which the voter may vote, he may vote a straight ticket of such party, vote for candidates for such offices so omitted by stamping a cross (X) in the voting square opposite the names of the candidates for such offices on any other ticket, or by writing the names, if they are not printed upon the ballot, in the blank column under the title of the office.

"Where two or more candidates for the same office are to be elected and the voter desires to vote for a candidate of some other party, he must stamp a cross (X) after the names of all candidates for such office he desires to vote for."

AMENDMENT No. 6.

Amend page five, printed bill, by striking out lines one hundred and forty-nine to one hundred and fifty-two, inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof as follows:

"ALL MARKS EXCEPT THE CROSS (X) ARE FORBIDDEN. ALL DISTINGUISHING MARKS OR ERASURES ARE FORBIDDEN."

Also amend the form of the ballot to conform with these instructions.

AMENDMENT No. 7.

On page five, printed bill, line one hundred and fifty-seven, strike out the word "forty," and insert in lieu thereof the word "twenty-four." Also, in line one hundred and fifty-eight, page five, printed bill, strike out the word "ten," and insert in lieu thereof the word "twelve." Also, in line one hundred and fifty-nine, page five, printed bill, strike out the word "gothic," and insert in lieu thereof the words "body type."

So ordered.

Mr. Stanton moved that a select committee of one be appointed to amend Senate Bill No. 793, as follows:

Strike out the word "printed," in line one hundred and ninety-three, page six, printed bill, and insert in lieu thereof the word "designated."

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 6, 1903.

To the Assembly of the State of California—

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have approved Assembly Bill No. 970—An Act to amend the Civil Code by adding a new section, to be numbered 580, relating to banking incorporations.

Also: Assembly Bill No. 12—An Act to amend Section 1183 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to liens of mechanics and others upon real property.

Also: Assembly Bill No. 225—An Act to amend Section 1662 of the Political Code, relating to the admission of children in the public schools of this State.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 6, 1903.

To the Assembly of the State of California—

I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 186, together with my reasons therefor.

The bill provides that the directors of irrigation districts may, and in cases where the canal system has not been completed shall, levy an assessment to provide for the payment of the running expenses of the district, including operation and repair of the works and salaries of officers and employes for the ensuing year. As the law stands now, such a levy cannot be made until the electors of the district, at a special election, so determine. The people living in many of these districts appear to look with great disfavor, and even fear, upon the proposed change in the law. It is claimed that the method of taxation proposed is not equitable, in that it is not graduated to correspond with benefits received from the system, and that a plan by which the expenses above mentioned would be raised by tolls collected from those using water within the district would be fairer to all concerned.

The taxation required to pay interest and principal of the bonds is borne by all the property in the district, and it may be levied without calling an election. It is claimed, and it seems to me with great justice, that the expense of distributing the water to irrigated lands should be borne by the property benefited, or, at least, if a general tax for that purpose is levied, it should not be done without the assent of the voters.

For these reasons, therefore, I return this bill without my signature.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 6, 1903.

To the Assembly of the State of California—

I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 13, together with my reasons therefor, as follows:

Under the terms of the bill all mining machinery placed in any mining claim, under a lease or other agreement, by the terms of which such machinery shall not lose its identity as the personal property of the lessor, shall be deemed to be a fixture and shall be subject to liens for labor performed in, or materials furnished to, said mining claim, unless such lessor shall, within three days after he obtains knowledge of said work or labor done, or materials furnished, post a notice in writing upon said claim or improvements thereon stating that he will not be responsible therefor.

It will be necessary for the lessor of said machinery, who in many cases lives many miles from the mining claim, to leave to another the actual posting of his notice of ownership, and the burden will be upon him, in case a lien is filed upon said machinery, to establish the fact of such posting. Since it is not provided in the bill that an affidavit of posting shall be evidence of such posting, the lessor must resort to oral proof to establish this fact. This in many imaginable cases it would be impossible to do.

It seems that some more reasonable method of giving notice could be devised, such as requiring the lessor to file his notice with the County Recorder; or at least that provision could have been made for filing an affidavit of posting which should constitute evidence of such posting.

To my mind this feature of the bill works an injustice upon the owner of leased or partially-paid-for machinery. And I therefore feel called upon to disapprove, and do disapprove, the bill.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE—(OUT OF ORDER).

ON STATE PRISONS AND REFORMATORY INSTITUTIONS.

Report of Visit to Preston School of Industry at Ione.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1903.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on State Prisons and Reformatories, in accordance with instructions contained in a resolution of this House, visited the Preston School of Industry at Ione, on Saturday, February 21, 1903, and begs to submit the following report:

Upon our arrival we were met by Superintendent Reddick and the officers, and were courteously shown the various buildings and other properties of the State, and had the cadets brought before us on dress parade.

The property of the State consists of a farm of about 600 acres, well fenced and equipped with appropriate and substantial buildings, most of which are in exceptionally good repair. Also belonging to the State is a water-right which furnishes water for use of the institution and for power to operate dynamos and other machinery. This right is made available by reservoirs, ditches and pipe-lines which have been constructed at times past, but now require the investment of some moneys to make them more efficient.

The farm, properly tilled, is capable of producing many of the vegetables that are consumed on the tables of the institution, as well as hay for cattle and horses.

The buildings consist of the administration building, used for the officers, dormitories, kitchen and dining-room, assembly rooms, and class-rooms; the industrial building, in which are the carpenter-shop, the shoeshop, the tailor-shop, and printing office (in disuse); the blacksmith-shop stands near this building and is also in disuse; the power house, in which are the dynamos; the commissary building, in which supplies are stored, the upper part of which is used as a cell-house. On the grounds are four cottages, only one of which is furnished and in use. There are substantial barns, stables and outhouses.

All of the structures on the property are in fair repair, except possibly parts of the roof of the administration building.

There are in the institution at the present time 120 cadets, according to the report of the Superintendent, about 100 of whom are housed in the administration building under the so-called congregate plan, and about 25 in the furnished cottage, under the so-called cottage plan of conducting industrial or reform institutions for boys. When the three cottages are furnished the institution will be equipped to accommodate two or three times as many cadets as are now there.

One of the principal objects of this institution is to teach the boys some trade by which they will be able to earn an honorable livelihood after being discharged or paroled. More attention should be paid to this feature. In the carpenter-shop only six boys are employed—three in the forenoon, and a like number in the afternoon. About the same number are employed in the blacksmith-shop, engineering department, shoeshop and tailor-shop, and only fourteen in the farm work. A paper is published for the school, it being printed at Stockton at an expense of $40 or $50 per month, while the printing office at the institution is idle. If the work was done at the institution, boys would be able to learn a useful trade, and that is the only necessity we can see for such a publication.

The same condition prevails to a certain extent in the baking of bread. Instead of employing the boys at that work, the bread is purchased at Stockton. The Superintendent claims he can purchase the bread cheaper than it can be baked at the institution. This hardly seems reasonable, but if true, the extra expense would be justified by the benefit which the boys would receive.

This institution ought to be made of as great benefit to the wayward youth of California as similar institutions in the older States are to the wayward youth of those States, and your committee believes it can be so made if men who have had successful practical experience in such institutions, or men whose abilities are recognized and whose life-work is not nearly over, be selected to administer its affairs.

OLMSTED, Chairman.

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON STATE PRISONS AND REFORMATORY INSTITUTIONS—(OUT OF ORDER).

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 10, 1903.

MR. SPEAKER: The select committee appointed pursuant to resolution adopted by the Assembly on the 18th day of February, 1903, report as follows:

The appointment is the outgrowth of a resolution offered by Mr. Brown and adopted January 31, 1903, as follows:

Resolved, That the Committee on State Prisons and Reformatory Institutions are hereby instructed and empowered to inquire whether prisoners confined in San Quentin and Folsom State prisons are now or have been within the last year subjected to cruel and unusual punishments, and especially to what extent the strait-jacket is being used at said prisons upon prisoners confined in said prisons for the purpose of discipline or punishment; that said committee make this inquiry during their visit to said prisons which they have been directed to make by this Assembly, and said committee is hereby directed to report to the Assembly, in writing, the result of their investigations as soon as practicable.

On February 13, 1903, the Committee on State Prisons and Reformatory Institutions reported, recommending the appointment of a special committee to "inquire into and investigate the management of said prisons, to the end that a more humane mode of punishment may be prescribed and a better system of management evolved."

In pursuance of this recommendation, a resolution was adopted as follows:

"WHEREAS, The Committee on State Prisons and Reformatory Institutions of the Assembly, after a partial investigation, have reported to the Assembly that certain abuses exist in the State Prisons at San Quentin and Folsom, and a majority have recommended the appointment of a select committee to thoroughly investigate the said prisons; and

"WHEREAS, It appears from said report that the administration of said prisons is inefficient, and that the system and methods of discipline are, in many instances, inhuman and cruel, and in need of immediate improvement and reform; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That a select committee of seven (7) members of the Assembly be appointed by the Speaker to immediately and fully investigate the administration and condition of both of said prisons; the methods of discipline and punishment used therein, and any and all charges that may be made against the officers thereof, and to report its findings to this House, and that said committee have full power to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony, send for persons, books, and papers; that a clerk, stenographer, and sergeant-at-arms be assigned to said committee, and that it have leave to sit at San Quentin and Folsom prisons, and at the City and County of San Francisco, during the session of the Assembly, together with such other powers as shall be necessary for full performance of its duties, and to report fully and as speedily as possible to the Assembly, with such recommendations as to necessary legislation and rules and regulations for the conduct and management of said prisons as it may deem necessary."

And thereupon you appointed the present committee.

We have examined a considerable number of convicts, three members of the Board of Prison Directors, the two Wardens, and a number of subordinate officers. Recognizing the generally unreliable character of convict testimony, we have based our report chiefly on the testimony of the Directors, Wardens, and officers, and on our personal observations.

We have made no inquiry (there being no time therefor) into the management of the prison-mill and rock-crusher, nor into the purchase of prison supplies.

For a complete investigation of the matters stated in the last-quoted resolution, weeks and months, rather than days, would be required. We realize that any inquiry made in the midst of a session of the Legislature by members thereof, busy with the work of the session, must be scanty and superficial, where the subject is one so large, so complex, and so debatable as the management of prisons. There is danger that by conclusions hastily drawn and boldly expressed grave injustice may be done to worthy men, and that suggestions and recommendations may be made that if followed would do mischief rather than good.

But there are certain facts, patent to any man who looks into the matter at all, conceded and emphasized by the men best acquainted with the State prisons of California—the men in charge of them—facts that ought to be proclaimed to every man and woman in the State until public opinion is thoroughly roused. Our two prisons are no credit to the State. California boasts its place in the front rank of States, but her prisons lag a generation behind the better class of Eastern penitentiaries. The two prisons are schools of vice and universities of crime. Sodomy is common in them and the more hideous form of the same vice mentioned in Assembly Bill No. 933 is practiced. Boys and young men, guilty of one offense against the laws, but not yet hardened in crime, are sent to these prisons not to be reclaimed, but to be systematically seduced and debased by utterly degraded convicts. Associated for a term of years with men whose villainy is their boast, young men graduate from these institutions fully-equipped enemies of society. Thus the State trains its criminals. They leave the prisons only to return, and statistics show that the proportion of "second-termers" is increasing at an alarming rate.

The responsibility for this great wrong rests primarily not with the Wardens, nor yet with the Board of Prison Directors, but upon the people of California, who have followed a false idea of economy, and, steeped in neglect of public affairs, have failed to provide means for the proper conduct of these institutions. California, vaunting her wealth, ostentatious in hospitality, self-complacent, has left the beautiful shore at San Quentin, looking out on Berkeley, Oakland and the Bay of San Francisco, to become an overgrown county jail of the old style, a jumble of buildings of all shapes and no shape, without method or design, where fifteen hundred convicts are housed at night in six hundred and forty cells, and huddled by day, when not at work, in a small yard, like a drove of cattle, with no attempt to segregate young from old, nor bad from worse: with no attempt to classify, and virtually no effort to reclaim.

Folsom is not, like San Quentin, an accident. The buildings are good and in accordance with a plan, but there are no single cells, except those used for incorrigibles and for those condemned to death. There is probably more sodomy more shamelessly practiced at Folsom than at San Quentin; the introduction of boy prisoners has been the occasion of fights for their possession. There are two boys now at San Quentin under sixteen years of age, whom the Warden has humanely lodged in the hospital, and has not permitted to step into the yard where the convicts are herded; he told a member of your committee that he might as well send in two girls.

Such, Mr. Speaker, are some of the things that follow the miserable economy that has failed to provide a separate cell for every prisoner, and means for classifying and grading the State convicts, so as to keep by themselves those that are believed to be not yet wholly beyond hope of reclamation. Money is needed for this, and if there be to-day a demand on the State treasury more urgent, more righteous and more promising of returns, we do not know it.

So huge a fault of the State itself overshadows the failures of this man and of that. But we think that the Prison Directors have been remiss in not more persistently and emphatically urging the needs of the prisons upon the people and the Legislature, in not making more continuous effort to awaken interest in the subject. Surely the duties of a Director do not end with auditing bills and having friends appointed to office under the Wardens. We wish to do the present members of the board no injustice, but we think that they have by no means met the requirements of their important office. They are busy men and receive no salary, but a Californian ought not to be content to see the institutions with whose conduct he is charged rest at a stage long since passed by our progressive sister States; he not only ought not to be content to see this, but he ought not to quit fighting and working for what he knows ought to be done. The people of California, once they realize the situation, will find the funds for the needed changes.

We recommend that the appropriation for maintenance of the San Quentin prison be raised from $50,000 to $150,000, and that the accumulated profits of the jute mill be not used for maintenance as now proposed, but be set aside for improvements, to be expended in accordance with plans adopted by the Board of Directors, approved by the Governor and the State Board of Charities, if such board be established; such improvements to include a jute warehouse at a cost not to exceed $5,000, an assembly hall (intended for use as a public school, the pupils being most of them children of prison officers), to cost not more than $2,000. All the rest to be used in increasing cell room or yard room, or both; except that not more than $15,000 be used in erecting at Folsom a building for all insane convicts in either prison. But if it be decided that the profits of the jute mill must now be used for maintenance, we recommend that Senate Bill No. 445 for the erection of a building at Folsom for insane convicts be passed, likewise Senate Bill No. 661 for a jute warehouse at San Quentin.

In the debates on the present Constitution, it was argued in favor of an unsalaried Board of Prison Directors, that men of leisure, means, and public spirit would be appointed, who would be glad to devote their time and thought to the prisons; that thus the prisons would be taken out of the currents of party politics, and conducted on a high plane of philanthropy, with an eye single to the general good. It is needless to say that the dream has not come true; there have usually been selected men full of business cares and active in party politics. Within less than three years after the adoption of the Constitution, in an elaborate report to the Governor, a commission, headed by W. H. Mills, showed conclusively that the Prison Directors were using their office to provide places for friends. More or less, that has been the case ever since. Theoretically and constitutionally, the Warden appoints and dismisses at his pleasure, practically, he appoints at the suggestion of a member of the board, or sometimes at the request of the Governor, or some other State officer, and often dare not dismiss. A general overseer was appointed at Folsom at the request of a recent Governor, a request being equivalent to a command. The appointment thus obtained, placed the overseer under no sense of obligation to the Warden. There was no feeling of loyalty, or sense of subordination; a relation of open hostility soon developed between them. The inferior, secure in his position, snapped his fingers at his superior, and criticised and condemned him openly. At the same time, the commissary, theoretically holding at the Warden's pleasure, but actually secure because the brother of a Director, was likewise at sword's point with his superior. Such a condition of things is insufferable; discipline is impossible; the officers are the laughing stock of the convicts. The real remedy for this is a thorough system of civil service in the prisons; appointment on competitive tests of fitness; appointment of men only to lowest grade, so far as practicable, and with prospect of promotion for faithfulness and efficiency. In that way, we believe that a better class of men could be had for guards, and for officers generally. But under the Constitution, as it now is, such a system can probably not be adopted in the prisons.

The next best plan is to put the actual power of appointment and removal where in theory it is—in the hands of the Warden. The Warden should be master of the situation and held fully responsible. We therefore think it should be ground for removal from office for any Prison Director hereafter to recommend or suggest, directly or indirectly, the appointment of a person by a Warden to an office or employment; and that it should be ground for impeachment of a Governor to make a similar suggestion or recommendation. The Governor, under like penalty, should keep hands off in the matter of appointing Wardens.

The Warden at Folsom has not had a free hand in his office, and has been so situated as not to have a fair chance. We believe that he is a kind and careful man, that he has been constant and faithful in his office and has done his best, but we think he has made too much of some convicts, causing jealousies and dissatisfaction. His clerk is a convict, and we find that this clerk is generally distrusted and disliked, and by many is regarded with marked hostility and contempt.

We cannot learn that the strait-jacket is used as a means of punishment anywhere except at San Quentin.

The majority of your committee (Bates, Baxter, Rolley, and Soward) recommend that the use of the strait-jacket be not abolished by law. One reason for this is that the present backward state of our prisons necessitates more drastic means of discipline than are found necessary elsewhere. They find that the jacket, as a means of punishment in a penitentiary, is neither cruel nor inhuman when judiciously used and its use regulated by proper restrictions. But the Prison Directors should by rule require that no convict be punished until after a physician has, by a physical examination then had, determined that such convict is physically able to undergo the proposed punishment.

The Directors should also require the attendance of a physician upon a convict during the time the jacket is being placed upon him and while undergoing physical punishment, at least as often as once in every six hours. Such physician should have power at any time to release the convict from further physical punishment. For every use of the jacket there should be an order signed by the Warden or General Overseer, and countersigned by the prison physician.

The jacket should be used only to punish offenses of the most serious kind, such as riot, assault, sodomy, carrying weapons, smuggling opium, or refusing to work.

The strait-jacket has not at all times heretofore been used judiciously at the Folsom and San Quentin prisons, notably in the cases of convicts Shaughnessy and Thompson at San Quentin, and Deare, Smith and Weitz at Folsom. And for this, the officers should be censured. Officer Randolph at San Quentin should not again be allowed to assist in punishing a prisoner.

The majority therefore recommend that Assembly Bill No. 792 be not passed.

All of your committee agree that punishments, and severe punishments, are absolutely necessary; not so much to protect the officers as to save peaceable and docile prisoners from assault, and to prevent a spirit of insubordination from spreading among the convicts. But we recommend that the practice of having a convict assist at the punishment of a fellow convict be discontinued.

It appears to be the fact that several causes, prominent among them the antiquated system of our prisons, the good food and free and easy association of all the convicts, have made California the happy hunting ground of professional criminals; so that the Wardens have perhaps more men hard to handle than are to be found in other penitentiaries. Punishments that are not effective are worse than useless.

It has been found that at both prisons, convicts sometimes prefer loafing in a cool dungeon to working in the hot sun, especially at Folsom. We think it might be well to try, as a remedy for refusal to work, the English method of the treadmill, or some other device that will compel work—the most appropriate way to punish a man for refusing to labor being either to deprive him of bed and board, the fruits of toil, or to place him in a position where he has no alternative but work, and work a little harder than that which he refused to do.

We find that the prisoners are not overworked; that their tasks are easily performed in six or seven hours a day, without working Sundays or holidays.

We find that at San Quentin the supply of food is sufficient in quantity and of as good quality as ought to be furnished, but it has been at times not quite sufficient in quantity or quality at Folsom for men performing hard work. The kitchen there is too much in the charge of convicts. It should be always in charge of an officer.

The testimony tends to show that there has been under the present Warden at Folsom, at times, an economy a little too close in the matter of clothing and bedding for convicts. They need more blankets.

It is not wise to make prison life attractive or easy. The prisoner should be made to understand, especially for the first year, that he is not only in confinement, but undergoing punishment. But we believe experience in other states and countries proves that (after the first months of severe treatment) by a system of marks and credits, and a chance for earning better conditions by good behavior, prisoners can be controlled with less punishment, and ways of industry and of self-government instilled into a considerable proportion of them, which may, in time, enable them to return to society safe and useful men. We agree with Mr. Chamberlain, Warden of Michigan State Prison, as quoted in the Journal of Prison Discipline, 1896-7, page 63, that "No methods of discipline that tend to debase the man should ever be resorted to in prison discipline." Some years ago General Brinkerhoff stated that "In Europe, upon the Continent, corporal punishments are prohibited. The most severe punishment is the dark cell, and that is seldom used. The main reliance is upon deprivation of privileges."

The use of any punishment to extort confessions or evidence is a crime and cannot be condoned for a moment. That punishment has been so used occasionally at San Quentin is admitted.

We find that opium is largely used at Folsom, and is very effectually excluded from San Quentin. It has never been kept out of San Quentin except by the present Warden, who has made a persistent, successful fight against the drug. And we heartily commend the discipline and good spirit maintained by Warden Aguirre; he seems to have the confidence and respect of the prisoners. The use of opium in the prison affects badly not only the health of the convicts but their behavior. It leads to quarrels, fights, insolence and insubordination. A wall about Folsom might possibly render the introduction of the drug more difficult; it would, at least, make it easier to guard the prisoners.

The position of a physician in a prison must be one of great difficulty; he is constantly approached by fakirs and feigners of aches, pains and illness; he is dealing with victims of various vices, with persons of weak or disordered intellect, men ignorant and often disgusting. It is not to be wondered at if, under these conditions, a prison doctor becomes rather harsh, suspicious and unsympathetic, sometimes neglecting a deserving patient. We think that such is the case with the physicians now employed at the two prisons. We say this with some hesitancy, because our information is derived from convicts.

We found sixty-two Federal prisoners at San Quentin; two of them boys under sixteen. We strongly recommend that no more prisoners be admitted from Federal courts to either prison until the State shall have provided adequate accommodations for its own convicts. We would go further and ask that the United States be requested to remove its prisoners from San Quentin. The little profit of keeping these convicts cannot be counted against the wrong done to them and to the State from that much more crowding of the place.

We recommend the introduction and passage of an Act as follows: "Males convicted of a felony in any court of this State who have before such conviction been imprisoned in any State prison or penitentiary of this or any other State or country shall, if sentenced to imprisonment, be sent to and confined in the State prison at Folsom. All others convicted of a felony in any court of this State shall, if sentenced to imprisonment, be sent to and confined in the State prison at San Quentin. But nothing in this Act shall take away or limit the power of the Board of Prison Directors to transfer convicts from one of said prisons to the other."

This is the suggestion of Chaplain August Drahm of San Quentin, perhaps the best authority in the State on criminology. And we recommend that the Prison Directors consider if it is not advisable to transfer to Folsom all recidivists at San Quentin, taking back an equal number of "first termers."

We do not attempt to recommend in detail a method of classification and segregation, because such classification, etc., must be worked out and developed as accommodations and opportunities are provided, and will require careful study by experts. We simply follow the almost unanimous opinion of experts in saying that classification and segregation are necessary to bring our prisons up to date. "In Europe as a rule" (and Europe is confessedly much in advance of the United States in prison matters), "first offenders under less than three years' sentence, are kept in separate cells, where they are supposed not to see or know any other prisoner."

We recommend that one of the Governor's secretaries visit each prison once a month, be permitted to see every convict and to receive from any one any communication in writing addressed to the Governor. Any communication seeming to the Governor to be worthy of further consideration may be investigated by such persons or persons, possibly members of the State Board of Charities, as the Governor may choose. At the present time a letter-box is provided at each prison to which only the Board of Prison Directors are supposed to have access. We are not able to decide whether or not other keys exist; but the prisoners generally believe that other keys exist, and have no confidence in the security of their communications.

We recommend that any person hereafter appointed Warden be required to spend at least three months, at the State's expense, in visiting and studying prisons in other States before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office. "In France there are officers' schools in the chief prisons. The chief wardens are sent to a prison class in Paris for half a year's special instruction"—Howard Association Report, October, 1892.

We hope that Assembly Bill No. 424, which has passed both houses, forbidding employment of inmates of State institutions in the manufacture of articles for the use of State officers, or officers and employés of State institutions, may become a law.

We recommend the passage of Assembly Bill No. 18, providing for a State Board of Charities and Reforms. We understand that the plan has worked well elsewhere, and think that it is worthy of a trial here. Such a board could do thoroughly what your committee has had to attempt hurriedly and unsatisfactorily; it could investigate, not at all in a spirit hostile to the prison management, but in hearty sympathy, seeking to aid in making plans for improvement, and in so presenting the needs of prisons and asylums that sufficient funds would be provided, wise plans adopted, and some consistent policy pursued.

A transcript in duplicate of the testimony taken by your committee will be filed with the clerk, and we recommend that one copy thereof be delivered to the Governor.

Your committee could not, in the few remaining days of the session, hope to make further investigation, and therefore, upon the filing of the transcript and expense account, will ask to be discharged.

Respectfully submitted.

My understanding is that the question of the further use of the strait-jacket for punishment was foreclosed by the adoption of the report of the standing committee, recommending that such punishment be abolished by law. I see no reason for reconsidering that action. In addition to what is said in the report, I would recommend to permit as punishment the dungeon, on short allowance of food, and in extreme cases tricing up, as practiced at Folsom.

Messrs. Finn and Traber will file a minority report covering points whereon they do not concur in the foregoing report.

CAMP

MINORITY REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON STATE PRISONS AND REFORMATORY INSTITUTIONS.

MR SPEAKER: We, the undersigned members of your Special Committee on Prison Investigation, being a minority of said committee, do report as follows:

That the report of the majority of said committee is in some respects in consonance with the conclusions arrived at by the undersigned, and in regard to those features we make no comment, and hereby adopt such report in those respects as our own. In some features, however, we cannot agree with the majority, and herewith submit our minority report, and ask that the same be adopted:

First—We recommend that the strait-jacket, as a means of punishment and discipline, be abolished by law, for the reason that its use is cruel and inhuman, even when used in the most moderate way possible, and that it should not be allowed by any civilized people in any institution as a means of punishment. In this behalf we submit that the strait-jacket, as used, is such that when a convict is placed in the strait-jacket he is compelled to lie helpless in his own filth, with no recourse, a condition we would hesitate to place a brute beast in; and, besides, in the hands of men prejudiced, as the prison officials often are, it becomes an instrument of torture the inhumanity of which cannot be pictured. Our investigation shows that, in many instances, men not in authority, purely subordinate, have had the sole power to punish by this means. The disposition of the Warden, the subordinate officers, and the doctors to treat the convicts as not deserving of consideration or pity, and only worthy of treatment accorded to brutes, leads us to the conclusion that the strait-jacket is a dangerous instrument to leave in the hands of ordinary men subject to ordinary human passions.

The only argument advanced for the retention of the strait-jacket is that there must be some means of punishment of which the convicts stand in fear, and that the strait-jacket is the only one found effective for the purpose. In contradiction of this statement, we wish to submit that, so far as we can learn, California is the only State where such punishment is practiced or allowed, and yet records and statistics show that in discipline, management and control, the California prisons rank lower than those of any other State. And as further proof, we submit that the present administrations are the first in the history of California prison management where the use of the strait-jacket was resorted to, and that discipline under former Wardens, notably Warden Aull, was better than any under the present administrations. The prison records at San Quentin show that the strait-jacket is used as a punishment not only for a breach of the rules, but also as a punishment for failure or inability on the part of the convicts to do or perform tasks or stunts imposed and for putting out poor work. This is certainly inhuman and brutal, and is almost beyond reasonable belief.

We submit that the total abolition of the strait-jacket is the only remedy for this abuse, and therefore recommend that Assembly Bill No. 792 be made an urgency matter and passed.

Second—In the majority report, the discipline maintained by the Warden at San Quentin has been praised. With this we disagree. We find that though the discipline maintained at San Quentin is good, it is a discipline induced by fear of the Warden alone, and not by reason of confidence or respect on the part of the convicts toward the Warden. Our observations lead us to believe that the Warden has, by working on the fears of the convicts of their being killed or permanently disabled, and by the use of the strait-jacket, so cowed the convicts that there is a show of confidence and respect, but that it is only induced by fear. The Warden at San Quentin has as officers under him close friends, and they all stand close with the Warden. It is our belief, based on what we have seen and heard, that many cruelties have been practiced in that institution, that your committee could not, or did not, hear of because the convicts feared for themselves if they revealed the true state of affairs, and because of the cordon of his friends with which the Warden has surrounded the secrets of the institution.

We wish further to add that the doctors at both prisons are incompetent, careless and harsh, and negligent of their duties—they seem to think that prisoners have no right to be sick, and are not deserving of treatment, and in our judgment many men needing treatment are neglected, simply because the doctors fear they will be imposed upon by some prisoner faking illness.

Third—We consider that the Board of Prison Directors have been extremely derelict in their duties. It appears that they have held their meetings very irregularly, and at these times have only vised the accounts, etc., and have not made inquiries regarding the actual needs of the prison—their discipline and the abuse of the prisoners. They should be compelled to attend to their duties or be removed from office, and men who are competent and willing to perform their duties put in their places.

We base our conclusions upon many things heard at both prisons, but the sources of which we dare not reveal for fear that vengeance will be wreaked upon the persons who revealed the information; and feeling it to be our duty to protect these helpless people, we withhold the sources from which we derived our information.

Respectfully submitted

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES—(OUT OF ORDER).

ON CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 4, 1903.

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Contested Elections having had under consideration the contest of Franklin versus Murphy for a seat in this Assembly from the Twenty-eighth Assembly District, which contest was referred to your committee by the Assembly, now beg leave to report as follows:

By a resolution adopted by the Assembly, your committee was instructed to count the ballots in this and similar cases, and report the result to the Assembly. Your committee has complied with this direction of the Assembly, after considerable delay and several extended sessions.

There were three candidates for the Assembly in the said Twenty-eighth Assembly District; but as the only issue was between the contestant, Franklin, and the contestee

Murphy, who was returned as elected, and who now holds the seat, your committee has not taken account of the votes cast for the third candidate, treating the ballots having his name on them as blank.

The ballots were brought before your committee by the Registrar of Voters of San Francisco on the order of the committee, and were all examined and counted by the committee in the presence of the parties in interest or their counsel. It was found that in addition to the ballots cast for the third candidate, so treated as blank ballots, there were a considerable number of ballots which were clearly illegal under decisions of the Supreme Court. These were excluded. There were also fifty-two other ballots not found to be otherwise illegal, which were challenged by contestant, of which particular mention will be made presently.

Of the ballots cast for the contestant and contestee, which your committee found to be legal, leaving aside the fifty-two ballots just mentioned, your committee report the following result:

Murphy.....	865
Franklin.....	805
Plurality for Murphy.....	60

The fifty-two ballots above mentioned were ballots on which the voters voted twice for the same candidate in instances where the candidate's name was printed twice on the ticket in different party columns. On forty-four of these ballots Murphy was voted for, while Franklin was voted for on the remaining eight. Counsel for contestant challenged these ballots, contending that they were illegal, while counsel for contestee resisted this challenge, contending that the ballots were legal.

Your committee have not passed upon this question, and report that it is not necessary to do so in this case. The counting or rejection of these ballots cannot affect the result.

Your committee recommend that John M. Murphy be confirmed in his seat as Assemblyman for the Twenty-eighth Assembly District.

WRIGHT, Chairman.

COMMUNICATION.

BERKELEY, CAL., March 9, 1903.

To the Honorable Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate of the State of California.

GENTLEMEN: Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 22, proposed by Senator Oneal, has been carefully examined and scrutinized by the educators of the State. It is certain that some sort of an amendment to the Constitution is necessary in order to transact the educational business of the State.

The State Board as at present constituted is too cumbersome and too expensive. In order to have a meeting, members have to travel from the farther ends of the State to get to the State Capitol, and as present constituted, there are too many members—there being nine members on the board. When attending meetings, they arrive at Sacramento, many times on late trains, work for two or three hours, and hurry away again to their respective posts without giving the necessary attention to the educational matters of the State.

Therefore, your constituents sincerely hope that this amendment will be submitted to the people, and give them an opportunity to vote on same.

Most respectfully submitted.

COMMITTEE FROM THE TEACHERS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

STATEMENT.

SACRAMENTO, March 11, 1903.

MR. SPEAKER: The roll call on Assembly Bill No. 85, found on pages 34 and 35 of the Journal of Tuesday, March 10, 1903, records me as voting in the affirmative on said bill. This is incorrect. I did not vote on the question of the passage of said bill. I do not think the Assembly has the power to correct a roll call, hence I make this statement. I think the error arose from the fact that by mistake Assemblyman Johnstone answered to my name, a natural mistake for the Clerk and member because of the similarity of names.

GROVE L. JOHNSON.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, March 10, 1903.

I have the honor to inform your honorable body that I have approved Assembly Bill No. 138—An Act providing for an appropriation of $5,000 for the purpose of improving the grounds and improving the buildings of Sutter's Fort

Also: Assembly Bill No. 681—An Act making an appropriation to pay a deficiency in the costs and expenses of suit fund of the Attorney-General's office.

Also: Assembly Bill No. 499—An Act to amend Section 1359 of the Political Code, relating to primary elections.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1903.

To the Assembly of the State of California:

I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 70, together with my reasons therefor, as follows:

The bill provides for the payment, out of the General Fund, of a claim "for damages sustained in loss of property by breakage of Fremont Street Wharf, the property of the State of California," etc.

While it is true that the claim is backed by a judgment of court against the State, my opinion is that such claims as this should not be paid out of the General Fund, but out of the funds of the San Francisco Harbor Commission.

I therefore return the bill without my approval.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1903.

To the Assembly of the State of California:

I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 612, to pay the Southern Pacific Company's claim for transporting State troops, for the reason that, in my judgment, the condition of the State Treasury will not, at this time, permit the payment of claims of this class. This is not a repudiation of the claim, but simply a postponement of its payment.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1903.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 15.

To propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State amending Section 1 of Article IV, providing a system of direct legislation, in the State of California, by means of the initiative and referendum.

The Legislature of the State of California at its regular session commencing on the fifth day of January, 1903, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes that Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested, save as otherwise in this Constitution provided, in a Senate and Assembly, which shall be designated "The Legislature of the State of California," and the enacting clause of every law shall be "The State of California doth enact as follows:—"

Any law that said Legislature itself or the electorate of the State, as herein provided, might enact, the Legislature may submit to a vote of the electors of the State at a general or special election.

Upon the presentation to the Legislature of a petition or petitions signed by qualified electors in number equal to fifteen per cent of all the votes cast for persons voted for for Governor at the then last election of Governor, asking for submission to the electors of a law set forth in full in such petition or petitions, being a law that the Legislature itself might enact, or might enact except for the fact that it involves the repeal or amendment of a law adopted by the electorate as herein provided, it must either enact such law without amendment or submit the same to the electors at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to 80 days after the presentation of the petition or petitions, and such petition or petitions are signed by qualified voters in number equal to 15 per cent of the total number of votes last cast for Governor.

No Act passed by the Legislature shall go into effect until at least 90 days after its final passage except such measures as may be declared by the Legislature to be urgency measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and passed in each house by a two-thirds vote of all members selected.

If a petition or petitions signed by qualified electors in number equal to 15 per cent of the total number of votes last cast for Governor is filed with the Secretary of State, asking that any law enacted by the Legislature be submitted to the electors (said petition or petitions having been filed within ninety days after the final passage of said law) then such law must be either repealed by the Legislature, or be submitted to the electors for approval or rejection at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to 80 days after the filing of the petition or petitions. If such law has not gone into effect before the filing of such petition or petitions, and such petition or petitions are signed by qualified voters in number equal to twenty-five per cent of the total number of votes last cast for Governor, then said law shall not go into effect until and unless adopted at such an election. No Act of the Legislature once submitted shall be again so submitted except by a vote of the Legislature, or upon a petition signed by qualified electors equal to 15 per cent of all the votes cast for persons voted for for Governor at the then last election of a Governor. If a majority of the votes cast on any law or measure, submitted as herein provided to the electors of the State, shall be in favor thereof, the same shall, if not already in effect, go into effect 30 days after such election, or as soon thereafter as the official count shall be determined, otherwise such law or measure shall stand repealed or rejected; such repeal shall take effect 30 days after such election, or as soon thereafter as the official count shall be determined. Such repeal of an Act repealing a former Act shall renew said former Act.

No measure adopted or approved by vote of the electorate shall be subject to veto, or be amended or repealed except by vote of the electorate.

If the provisions of two or more measures approved or adopted at the same election conflict, then the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall control.

STATEMENT.

MR. SPEAKER: My reasons for voting "no" on Assembly Bill No. 792 are that if the bill became a law, it would restrict the prison authorities too greatly in disciplining vicious prisoners, and would not permit of enough latitude in the exercise of proper judgment by such authorities in such cases. I believe, however, that such punishments should be used only in extreme cases.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1903. }

To the Assembly of the State of California:

I herewith return, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 923.

The effect of this bill, if enacted into law, would be so to modify Section 478 of the Civil Code as to require the approval of the Governor and Secretary of State, in addition to that of the Surveyor-General, before a railroad corporation could secure a right of way over public lands of the State. If this were the only modification of the existing law made by the amendment, it might very properly be regarded with favor; but while the law as it stands authorizes a review of the proceeding by the courts, that provision is omitted from the present bill.

Deeming it unwise to authorize and require the issue of a permit to occupy a right of way without explicit recognition of the right of review by the courts, I withhold my signature.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

I have the honor to respectfully return herewith, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 389, together with my reasons therefor, as follows:

The first sentence of the bill begins as follows: "Every corporation organized under the laws of this State may extend its corporate existence not to exceed fifty years," etc.

Article XII, Section 7 of the Constitution, reads as follows: "The Legislature shall not extend any franchise or charter, * * * of any corporation now existing or which shall exist hereafter under the laws of this State."

It seems to me that the bill, for this reason, is plainly unconstitutional.

The title of the bill expresses two subject-matters, viz : First, extending the corporate existence of corporations, and, second, enabling corporations to sell their property during the last ten years of their existence. The bill itself also contains these two provisions. My judgment is that these two facts are in contravention of Article IV, Section 24 of the Constitution, which provides that "every Act shall embrace but one subject, which subject shall be expressed in its title."

For these reasons, I return the bill without my approval.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California.

Also:

I herewith return to your honorable body, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 653, with my objections thereto.

By this bill Section 475 of the Civil Code would be repealed. That section recites that the grants of rights of way for railroads over public lands as provided in Section 474 do not apply to any lands of the State within the corporate limits of towns and cities, or within three miles thereof.

So far as I am aware, no practical inconvenience has resulted from this restriction. Railroad companies desiring rights of way over State lands have been able to obtain them, and desirable public improvements do not appear to have been seriously hampered by the law as it now stands.

Under these circumstances, I deem it best to withhold my signature from the bill.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California

Also:

I herewith return to your honorable body, without my approval, Assembly Bill No. 652, with my objections thereto.

This bill proposes an amendment to Section 474 of the Civil Code, which as it stands grants to every railroad corporation a right of way over any swamp, overflowed or other public lands of the State, not exceeding in length or width that which is necessary for the construction of its works and adjuncts thereto, or for the protection thereof, "not in any case to exceed two hundred feet in width."

The present bill would modify this section by omitting the limitation that the right of way shall not exceed two hundred feet in width and would leave the grant with only the general limitation that it shall not exceed the dimensions which may be considered necessary.

There is added a provision not in the present law which requires that whenever the lands taken are in a navigable river, bay, stream, or other waters, the grant shall not be effective till approved by the Secretary of War; but this provision is less important than it might seem to be, because there is already a similar requirement in the laws of the United States, which control wherever rights of navigation are in question.

I am of opinion that it is unwise to remove the restriction as to the extent of the public lands to be occupied as right of way by railroads, and therefore return this bill without my signature.

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of the State of California

All statutes now in force allowing, providing for, or regulating appeals to the Supreme Court shall apply to appeals to the District Courts of Appeal so far as such statutes are not inconsistent with this article and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 13, 1903. }

To the Assembly of the State of California:

I return herewith to your honorable body, without my approval, Assembly Bill No 181, with my objections thereto.

This bill amends Section 1203 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to mechanics' liens, and its purpose is to avoid certain objections to this section sustained by the Supreme Court in Gibbs vs. Tally, 133 Cal. 373.

The proposed amendments, and the amendatory section as a whole, are, in my mind, still subject to some of the objections made in the above case, and particularly so as to the amendment making the contract void for failure of the contractor to file the bond required, and by such default placing the owner under liability for more than the contract price.

I therefore return the bill without my signature

GEO. C. PARDEE,
Governor of California.

Assembly Bill No. 181 having been returned to the Assembly without the Governor's approval and with his objections thereto.

The question being, "Shall Assembly Bill No. 181 become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

RESOLUTION.

By Mr. Dunlap:

Resolved, That Senate Bill No. 396 presents a case of urgency, as that term is used in Section 15 of Article IV of the Constitution, and the provision of that section requiring that the bill shall be read on three several days in each house is hereby dispensed with, and it is ordered that said bill be read the first, second, and third times, and placed upon its passage.

Mr. Dunlap moved the adoption of the resolution.

The previous question was demanded by Messrs. Brown, Dunlap, and Higgins.

The question being, "Shall the main question be now put?"

AYES—Messrs. Amerige, Bangs, Barnes, Bates, Black, Bliss, Boisson, Brown, Camp, Copus, Covert, Cromwell, Dougherty, Drew, Dunbar, Dunlap, Ellis, Foster, Goodrich, Hart, Higgins, John, Johnson, Johnstone, Kelso, Killingsworth, King, Lewis of Riverside, Mattos, McLaughlin, Moore, Murphy, Olmsted, Prescott, Rolley, Soward, Stansell, Susman, Walker, Walsh, Wanzer, Waste, and Weger—43.

To the Assembly of the State of California

GENTLEMEN: If you will permit me, I desire, at the close of the thirty-fifth session of the Legislature, to express to you my official and personal thanks for the many kindnesses and courtesies you have extended to me during the past seventy days. Our intercourse has been most pleasant; and I shall always carry in my memory the pleasantest recollections of the weeks that we have spent here together.

The State, too, is to be congratulated on the results of your labors. Your earnest, conscientious efforts have, I am convinced, produced good legislative fruit. And while both the Legislature and the Executive have, of course, committed mistakes, both of omission and commission, still, I am sure, the interests of the people of the State have not suffered at your hands.

Gentlemen, in bidding you an official farewell, I do so hoping that our relations may continue in the same pleasant lines in which they have heretofore been cast. And I hope, also, to have your personal friendship. Believe me, I am at your service and earnestly request your good offices at all times.

VALEDICTORY OF SPEAKER FISK.

Gentlemen of the Assembly—

The thirty-fifth session of the Legislature of the State of California is about to end and before the hour of adjournment arrives it may not be out of place for me to say a few words. At the time you conferred upon me the distinguished honor of presiding over your deliberations, I asked your aid and support in the performance of my duty. At this time and in the closing hours of the session, permit me to thank you for the kindly support and ever courteous treatment which you have at all times accorded me. I have endeavored to be fair and impartial. How well I have succeeded rests with you to decide. If I have erred, and I undoubtedly have, I assure you it has been unintentional.

I do not propose at this time to enter upon an extended resumé of your labors. I desire to say, however, that I believe you have at all times been deeply sensible of, and have fully performed, your duty both as public servants and as conscientious and honest legislators. The people of your various Assembly districts, and of the State at large, will review your labors, and will, I am sure, justly commend the ability and integrity with which you have performed your duty. I have never doubted, even during debate or when opinions differed most, but that each and every member had at heart the public good and the best interests of the commonwealth.

I desire to congratulate the chairmen and members of the various committees of this House for the able manner in which they have performed the work allotted to them. We all realize that the work of a legislative body must be performed in the committees.

I also desire to thank the Chief Clerk, the Sergeant-at-Arms, and their assistants, for the able manner in which they have conducted their departments.

It is the members of the dominant party that must assume the responsibility for the legislation of this session. I am not fearful of the judgment of the people, nor need you fear that your labors will remain unrewarded.

The hour of parting approaches, and it is with a feeling of sadness that I realize that I must, pursuant to the concurrent resolution, adjourn this body. In closing, allow me to thank you, each and all, for the patience and courtesy you have always extended to me. Our association will ever be a pleasant recollection to me. May I be permitted to hope that you will, in the years to come when time has worked its innumerable changes, ever think that the Speaker endeavored, so far as he was able, to perform his duty.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES.

The minutes of Saturday, March 14, 1903, were approved.
